

Big Idea

Generosity is a practical way to build a legacy life and grow. When we are generous with our time, talents, touch and treasures, we grow spiritually, mentally, and sometimes even tangibly. Compassion leads us to recognize needs and heal hurts with our time and touch. God designed us with a desire to give. That's why being generous makes us happy! Our greatest reward is not what we gain by being generous here on earth, but when we finally stand before the judgment seat of Christ and receive our eternal reward from our Heavenly Father. A true and lasting treasure, indeed!

Scripture

- Those who refresh others will be refreshed. (Proverbs 11:25)
- The righteous care about justice for the poor. (Proverbs 29:7)
- He who is kind to the poor lends to the Lord, and He will reward him for what he has done. (Proverbs 19:17)

Discussion Question

- Who can you “touch” or encourage this week?
- What are your talents and passions that you can use to bless others?
- When you have free time, do you spend it giving back to the Lord?
- Do you honor the tithe with a grateful heart?

Prayer Focus

Lord, thank you for showing us generosity by offering your Son, Jesus, as a sacrifice for our lives. Give us Your heart, Father, that we would generously and lovingly share our blessings and gifts with others. In all our efforts, let them point people back to You. Take what we give and multiply it for Your kingdom. Amen.

Next Steps

- Find one or two people this week that you can encourage through a letter, phone call, or text. Get creative!
- Make it a point to use your free time to bless others (and in return, note how it made you feel.)

Leader Tip

Encourage transparency in your group by sharing which area of generosity challenges you most. Share what you've experienced and how God has spoken to you, this week.
